Oops - PHO Slated for AFIT Not Listed in Newsletter!

Colonel Cropper,
Associate Chief for Public Health, recently announced AFIT selection information, which was shared in my last newsletter. However, one name was omitted!
My bad! Please help me congratulate

Capt Andy Mullins

one of your my-t-fine USAFSAM PH instructors, who was selected for an AFIT MPH.

He is:

- Director, Occupational Health and Environmental Programs, Department of Public Health, USAFSAM
- Master Instructor, Department of Public Health, USAF School of Aerospace Medicine
- Associate Course Supervisor, Public Health Officer Basic Course
- Coordinator and Instructor, Health and Environmental Risk Communication Programs for the Air Force
- Graduate, Louisiana State University, School of Veterinary Medicine (Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, 1991)
- Graduate, University of Arkansas (B.S. Agriculture)
- Graduate, Air University Squadron Officers School, 1993
- Four years experience as a base Public Health Officer
- Certified Trainer for Risk Communication
- Member, National Environmental Health Association and American Veterinary Association
- POC for PH to the Uniform Services Affiliate of the National Environmental Health Assoc.
- Great officer and all-around super-cool, biker-dude, kind of guy.
